From 25 to 29 April 2018 another spring conference of the International Network of Law Firms CONSULEGIS will be held. This time representatives of the member law firms will meet in Dublin.

Members of the CONSULEGIS Network will have an opportunity to participate in lectures, workshops and meetings of specialised working teams. The conference will also be a great opportunity to strengthen relations between representatives of the member law firms.

More information about the organised conference may be found on the Consulegis website.
