Result of the competition for the best master’s thesis

Opublikowano: 30 November 2015 • Autor: Anna Porebska APR

This is to inform that by the decision of the judging panel made up of: Mr Piotr R. Graczyk, advocate, as the chairman Mr Wojciech Cieślak, Ph.D., advocate, professor of the University of Warmia and Mazury Mr Wojciech Rocławski, legal adviser and Rechtsanwalt the winner of the first competition for the best master’s thesis in […]

This is to inform that by the decision of the judging panel made up of:

Mr Piotr R. Graczyk, advocate, as the chairman

Mr Wojciech Cieślak, Ph.D., advocate, professor of the University of Warmia and Mazury

Mr Wojciech Rocławski, legal adviser and Rechtsanwalt

the winner of the first competition for the best master's thesis in the area of the law on combating unfair competition organized by the Unfair Competition & Compliance Law Portal and RGW Rocławski Graczyk i Wspólnicy Adwokacka Spółka Jawna is a graduate of the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Gdańsk with the master's thesis entitled

Mr Konrad Kowalski

"Hindering access to the market in the light of article 15, section 1, subsection 4 of the Act on combating unfair competition"

The winner will receive prize money of CHF 1,000.00, opportunity to be on placement with the RGW Office in Warsaw or Berlin as well as a one-year access to the e-platform sPrawnik.

We warmly congratulate the winner, and we thank other competitors for their participation.

We invite all those interested to take part in the next edition of the competition.

Anna Porebska APR
30 November 2015