

White Collar Crime Law Firm of the Year in Poland - Corporate INTL Awards 2020

Opublikowano: 19 February 2020 • Autor: Anna Porebska APR

RGW has been recognised in the prestigious Corporate INTL Awards 2020. Practice of attorney Piotr R. Graczyk was awarded the title of “White Collar Crime Law Firm of the Year in Poland”. The awards, granted annually by Corporate INTL, are the result of meticulous assessment of law firms from around the world in terms of [...]

RGW has been recognised in the prestigious Corporate INTL Awards 2020.

Practice of attorney Piotr R. Graczyk was awarded the title of “White Collar Crime Law Firm of the Year in Poland”.

The awards, granted annually by Corporate INTL, are the result of meticulous assessment of law firms from around the world in terms of services offered, expertise, how the business operates and involvement in assistance provided to entrepreneurs who operate in a given geographical area or are just planning to enter the market.

RGW offers its clients assistance in the field of economic criminal law as part of the “White Collar Crime” practice. Due to many years of experience in this specialist area of law, we support our Clients at all stages of their economic activity and provide advice in the field of criminal compliance as well as represent them in preparatory and court proceedings.

We are pleased that professionalism of RGW has also been recognised at an international level.

Anna Porebska APR

19 February 2020