World Bank’s Certificate of Appreciation for Mr Wojciech Rocławski

Opublikowano: 20 November 2016 • Autor: Anna Porebska APR

Solicitor & Rechtsanwalt Wojciech Rocławski, partner of the RGW law office, has received a Certificate of Appreciation granted by the Enabling the Business of Agriculture team, a World Bank group product, for instrumental contribution to the Enabling the Business Agriculture 2017 report. The World Bank’s report will provide data from 62 countries in the world […]

Solicitor & Rechtsanwalt Wojciech Rocławski, partner of the RGW law office, has received a Certificate of Appreciation granted by the Enabling the Business of Agriculture team, a World Bank group product, for instrumental contribution to the Enabling the Business Agriculture 2017 report.

The World Bank’s report will provide data from 62 countries in the world regarding regulatory good practices that will be a useful tool for analysis and identification of legal barriers for the business of agriculture.

The Enabling the Business of Agriculture project focuses on monitoring the agriculture and agribusiness markets as well as regulations having a negative impact on those markets. The EBA also aims to encourage creation of conditions conducive to local and regional agriculture businesses.

Anna Porebska APR
20 November 2016