

Mr Piotr R. Graczyk is a managing partner of the RGW Law Office. He has been an attorney since 2006.

Mr Piotr R. Graczyk has long-standing experience of broadly understood economic law, and in particular economic criminal law. Mr Graczyk represents highly specialised companies in penal proceedings in cases involving combat against unfair competition. In addition, he provides legal aid at the stage of preparatory and judicial proceedings to companies aggrieved by white collar crimes.

Mr Graczyk runs also seminars for entrepreneurs who are associated in the Polish-Swiss Chamber of Commerce on combating unfair competition and is the editor in chief of Unfair Competition & Compliance Law Portal dedicated to law on combating unfair competition and related issues in the legal systems of Poland and Germany.

Mr Graczyk was an Arbitrator and Member of the Council of the Court of Arbitration for Sport at the Polish Olympic Committee in the term 2012-2015 and the Arbitrator and Member of the Council and Secretary of the Court of Arbitration for Sport at the Polish Olympic Committee in the term 2016-2019 and 2020-20203.

Mr Piotr R. Graczyk graduated from the University of Warsaw, Faculty of Law and Administration (summa cum laude), Centre for American Law Studies of University of Florida, F.G. Levin College of Law, University in Saarbrücken in Germany. He also completed postgraduate studies in Fiscal and Economic Criminal Law at the Jagiellonian University.

Mr Adam Baworowski has been an attorney since 2009. Before 2009 he was working as a prosecutor. Mr Baworowski completed prosecution traineeship in Warsaw and passed the exam in 1999.

As a prosecutor of the District Prosecution Warszawa-Mokotów, Mr Baworowski conducted criminal-economic proceedings. He was a member of Prosecution's Office Computerisation Team at the Ministry of Justice, head of the Independent Computerisation and Analysis Department at the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Warsaw, a consultant on new technology crime and the Information Security Administrator at the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Warsaw.

As an attorney, he specialises in new technologies law, professional and business secrets procedures, protection of information and anti-corruption and unfair competition cases.

He was a speaker at seminars conducted at the University of Warsaw, University of Wrocław, the Police Academy in Szczytno at international conferences on Technical Aspects of Teleinformatic Crime, the Naval Academy in Gdynia.

He is the co-author of the anti-corruption code implemented in a large Polish company from a pharmaceutical industry.

Mr Adam Baworowski graduated from the University of Warsaw, Faculty of Law and Administration. He also completed postgraduate studies on computer crime at the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń.